Founded in 2008, the Chester County Sports Hall of Fame is a non-profit, membership based, volunteer organization dedicated to preserving the rich athletic history of Chester County. Each year, the CCSHOF membership selects a distinguished group of athletes, coaches, and/or community members who have excelled on the playing field or provided dedicated service to sports at various levels. Since 2008, over 200 Chester County individuals, organizations, and teams have been inducted into the CCSHOF for their lifetime accomplishments at the Olympic, professional, collegiate, high school or community level.

Our annual induction process culminates with a celebratory event held in November of each year. This festive well attended occasion is open to the public. Our Class of 2024 inductees will be honored at a banquet on November 9, 2024, at the Red Clay Room in Kennett Square, PA.

To commemorate that event, the CCSHOF publishes a program booklet containing a biography of each inductee and their specific sports accomplishments. Advertising space is available in the booklet for local merchants, schools, family members and others to offer their congratulations to the inductees or to support the CCSHOF in general. Details on the price and size of ads are attached.

We invite you to visit our website at www.chestercountysportshalloffame.com to find out more about our organization and how you might also become a voting member of the CCSHOF.
